Come alive at Kalani! You'll be welcomed with aloha, enjoy delicious wholesome cuisine, experience abundant yoga, dance, adventure, spa, and class activities, all while relaxing in your choice of comfortable accommodations. Gay-managed and designed to celebrate diversity and provide comfort for every budget, Kalani is located near Hawaii's most spectacular and popular visitor destination, Hawaii Volcanoes National Park. Kalani's 120-acre retreat lies on a conservation coastline east of lava goddess Pele, with the world's freshest air, gorgeous black sand beaches, natural thermal springs, steam bathing, and tidal pools excellent for snorkeling. Kalani is a wonderful place to embark on a healing journey, to deepen your connection with yourself, other beings, and with the earth. We offer a variety of health and self growth workshops throughout the year, as well as numerous adventure weeks. Learn yoga, hula, or Hawaiian plant weaving. Enjoy a massage or watsu (water shiatsu) from our talented therapists, or just relax around our clothing-optional pool, sauna, and spas. Discover how life at Kalani can help your body, mind, and spirit shape a new exuberant you. Meet like-minded men and women from around the world and enjoy a peaceful and nurturing environment, whether you want a personal retreat, a terrific workshop, or a volunteer opportunity. Aloha a hui hou!
