Thank you for visiting my ad here. I am an attorney in New York City who zealously represents my clients in various settings from the boardroom to the courtroom and back. I also have had extensive experience in real estate issues from all perspectives as well as estate planning and administration. I thoroughly enjoy my vibrant, diverse practice. Regardless of why you retain an attorney, trust is the essential ingredient in all attorney-client relationships. Trust is the foundation of the attorney client relationship. The client trusts that the lawyer is doing his or her best to advocate the client's interests in an economical fashion. The lawyer trusts that the client is forthright about facts and goals. I endeavor to uphold the trust that you place in me to assist you with your affairs, abide by my ethical obligations and honor your rights as my client while I am your counsel. I represent clients in many facets of the law: litigation, estates, real estate transactions, business matters and wills. Please call me for a free initial consultation.
