San Francisco/Los Angeles Photographer Misti Layne provides wedding photography and portraiture in San Francisco, Los Angeles, the San Francisco Bay Area, Silicon Valley, Sonoma/Napa and Marin. Specialties include Wedding Photography, Family Portraiture, Realtor, Model, Acting and Corporate Head Shots, Event Photography and Pet portraiture. Photographing weddings and commitment ceremonies, family portraiture, pregnancy and engagement portraits are all steps in documenting the important events of your life. My experience in fashion, life and photography and my journalistic and documentary style make for a fresh and exciting look that captures the vibrancy and the special nature of your wedding. My photographs are not posed, capturing the brilliance and sparkle of people naturally. I cherish my personal photo albums more than anything and I hope the candid and portrait photographs we take at your wedding are just the start to documenting all the important events of your life for those generations yet to come. I want to be your photographer for life, not just your wedding photographer. There is a bit of my soul in every photograph I take. I offer a boutique experience. You deal with me personally and everything is customized to you and your desires.
