

Jennifer R. Cochran-Green

13062 W. Hwy 290 West
Suite 103
Austin, Texas 78737
United States

Phone: 512-870-8187
Fax: 512-236-5303

CLOSED Jennifer Cochran-Green is a family attorney who has been representing clients in family law matters and estate planning since she started her practice in 2008. Jennifer is passionate about working with families with children and is committed to understanding the unique needs of each family she works with. She will work together with you to design an approach that addresses your issues of concern, and puts you on the path to a more positive future.

Our experienced attorney, Jennifer Cochran-Green, will directly handle all aspects of your case. She will be by your side throughout the process, answering your questions and providing you with the advice you need to make informed decisions. She has assisted many families just like yours with a number of different family law concerns, including: Divorce and the division of marital property, as well as serving as a mediator in contentious divorces and custody disputes Child custody and the modification of custody or parenting time plans Child support and the enforcement or defense of child support orders Petitions for adoption, as well as issues connected to the adoption process LGBT family law matters, including child custody disputes or other issues facing same-sex couplesQuestions about reproductive law matters, including preparing and reviewing surrogacy

contractsEstate planning services

We ensure that you have the skilled assistance necessary from our experienced attorney to resolve the complex issues that you are facing. Jennifer will not let you be taken advantage of during such a difficult time in your life. She will stand up for your family throughout your case, including in the courtroom, if it is necessary.

Specialization(s): Family Law, Estate Planning, Probate

GayLesbianDirectory Discount Offered: Free Consultation