JCCA's Ametz Adoption Program is the place to start the life-changing process of becoming an adoptive parent. Ametz staff and social workers understand the complexities of the system and the emotional journey that prospective parents go through. We will help you explore all your options, make the right decisions, and get through all the paperwork. And because Ametz is connected to an international network of adoption agencies and attorneys, we can help you evaluate your choices and build your family in the most effective way. Ametz works with people of all faiths and backgrounds, throughout New York and New Jersey. We remain available to you and your family throughout the years, to provide advice and guidance on adoptive parenting and lifecycle events. NY & NJ Licensed Agency Fully Hague Accredited through 2017 Homestudies, Post Placement, and Post Adoption Reports. Singles, Couples, Step, and Second Parent Adoptions. Professional Training Institute Annual Conference (NYC). Support Groups. Education Workshops. Counseling.
