The Lesbian Business Community's lesbian-owned and LGBT-friendly vibrant business community is the first and only online resource developed by and for lesbians. It is highly optimized with built-in search engine optimization (SEO), the listings are local search-ready and searchable by business category. The Lesbian Business Community also provides curated content geared to lesbian business owners in a number of business-related fields, and will soon offer proprietary content by lesbian business writers. The website includes a national and local listing of lesbian-oriented social and business events, and a "community" area to help spark conversation and connection among users.
