A proud member of the LGBTQ Community! What makes Austin different is the progressive and positive attitude of its people. Austinites are happy and content in this great Central Texas area. Austin has so much to offer: natural beauty, music, film, festivals, Formula 1, lakes, rivers, parks, hike and bike trails. You'll want a REALTOR who is dedicated to meeting your goals in a fast, friendly, and caring manner. Someone who understands what it is to put "YOUR" needs first. I would like the opportunity to be your REALTOR and prove how I can provide you with such service. My strength in the Real Estate business comes from my willingness to commit in providing my clients with consistent, fine-tuned service tailored to meet your specific needs. I build relationships with my clients now and for the long haul. As your agent, you will receive full attention at all times. I will notify you of the best properties in the Central Texas area that fits your needs. If you desire property in other areas, we will service those areas as well. From April 23-June 23, 2017, I was the SAG for the Restore Honor Ride. The purpose of the Restore Honor Ride was to recognize and honor the hundreds of thousands of patriotic Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Veterans who suffered from discrimination while in the military, and had to hide who they were in order to serve their country. Those who were discharged or forced to resign for being gay, now have the right to receive the honorable discharge that they were denied, get the benefits that they are entitled to, and re-enlist and serve openly if they choose. We rode 3500 miles from Santa Monica, CA to Washington, DC Prior to Real Estate I worked as a teacher, coach, and athletic director in Austin and San Antonio. Along with working as a Realtor, I teach part time at Texas State University. I have taught there since my retirement from public school in 2005. I love the youthful energy and acceptance of young adults. They light up my day each time I see them. They are such free and unencumbered adults. I have been blessed to have been mentored by warm and caring colleagues that always “had my back” in education. From high school coaches, college coaches and career colleagues they have all contributed to my success. 2014 - Inducted into my high school Hall of Fame - Distinguished Kearny High School Alumni Hall of Fame, San Diego, California 2005 - Awarded the Texas Athletic Director of the Year by the National Council of Secondary School Athletic Directors and the Texas Association of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.
