Cannizzaro Law, P.C. is a small, boutique practice consisting of its principal attorney, Louis A. Cannizzaro, and his husband and paralegal, Michael Romano. Lou has been practicing law for over 15 years in the New York metro area, focusing on estate planning, estate administration, and estate litigation. His new practice is dedicated to bringing his vast experience to the LGBTQIA+ community. As a fellow member of the community, Lou deeply understands the dynamic and unique needs that individuals and couples in the community face as it relates to their estate planning. In addition, Lou's litigation experience informs the planning process in order to anticipate and mitigate potential disputes. As such, he is committed to crafting customized solutions that reflect your specific goals in a modern and compassionate setting.
