As a potential client of Realtor David Dorman you don't need to spend any of your valuable time vetting this amazingly accomplished Real Estate expert before arriving at this inevitable conclusion:
Realtor David Dorman is your best choice. David Dorman as one of the most accomplished and most appreciated Realtors in the entire Greater Orlando region. David Dorman has been dubbed one of "Real Estate's Hot 100" by Orlando Magazine, wherein his name has been included in their list of the area's Top 100 Realtors every year for more than a decade. In 2003 David Dorman became the very first Central Florida Century 21 agent to be inducted into the respected corporation's Century 21 Honor Society. Being received by The Honor Society is an accolade reserved for only those agents who, in addition to achieving Top Sales status nationwide, must have also received the Quality Service award for a minimum of five consecutive years. And that's the award that will matter most to you, just as it does to David, because the Quality Service award can only be achieved by garnering and maintaining consistently high scores on customer satisfaction.

surveys. In other words, year after year, clients of David Dorman have formally registered their complete satisfaction with his performance on their behalf. David has always believed that more than any other factor, it is the satisfaction of his past clients – whether buyer or sellers – that offers testimony to potential clients that David Dorman listens to, cares about, and is accessible to those who elect to partner with him in order to achieve their Real Estate goals. As the slogan accurately states, “When You Hire David Dorman – You Get David Dorman”, but in getting David Dorman you also get the owner of the business, a licensed Broker, and a top notch, multi-award winning, board-certified Realtor who continues to take courses and attend seminars in order to maintain his competitive edge, on your behalf. David Dorman continues to invest in the latest marketing technologies and continues to explore and implement ever changing strategies to keep up with the ever-changing times in which we now live. He is passionate about helping people like you navigate what is likely to be the single most important transaction of your life – buying or selling a home. Once you choose to take advantage of all that David Dorman has to offer what you will quickly come to realize is that he is fundamentally a good guy. David has built his organization, in part, by drawing upon world renowned Disney guest service standards which he acquired while working for the Mouse as a very young adult, where he quickly obtained a leadership position. Since that time David has earned a reputation for being both genuine and effective. He is smart in business, and tough when he needs to be tough, but always respectful of others. He is professional yet always friendly. David Dorman is cognizant of the fact that your time is no less valuable than his own. He prides himself on both his accessibility and his communication skills. David will get to know you. You will get to know David. And what you will come to know is perhaps his most important quality... he is an honest man. So, what are you waiting for? Why waste time looking elsewhere? You might be able to find a Realtor or two out there who is as knowledgeable as David Dorman, but you won't find a better person!
