Luxurious Ocean Front Accommodations with Lodge Rental and Private Cottage Located on the western banks of Vancouver Island, British Columbia, Canada. This remote ocean edge 3.27 acreage hosts spectacular views and magnificent scenery. Providing a secluded corner of the world for its guests, this private villa & cottage are perched high above the salty waters of the Pacific Ocean's Strait of Juan de Fuca, and fresh waters of Muir Creek. Distant Mountains of the Olympics lift up along the horizon taking shape in early morning as the sun rises for its daily panoramic journey across the sky to set. While Craidelonna is not a bed & breakfast, Full in house meal catering is available. Built into the sides of the ocean banks this 4500 square foot villa & 750 square foot cottage, host slate courtyards & outside eating areas. Gardens throughout the property lead through blast rock & slate patios with cedar decked vistas and vantage points everywhere. The property even has its own small amphitheatre that can seat up to 25 guests for any occasion or shows. This west coast style home & cottage boasts commanding views to ocean and mountains from every room. Inside a large main dining and living area a hearth fireplace makes the ideal setting for gatherings. A "backyard" outside large hot tub and wood burning sauna complete with hot water shower add the touch of luxury to rural oceanside living.
