

Beaufort House Inn

61 North Liberty St.
Asheville, North Carolina 28801
United States

Phone: 828-254-8334

Enjoy the warmth and friendly atmosphere of this one-of-a-kind historic property. Built in 1894, this historic home has been meticulously restored as a romantic bed and breakfast inn with an air of casual luxury and elegance - the perfect environment for an exceptional getaway experience. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, this beautiful Queen Anne Victorian is situated on 1 ½ acres in the quiet, residential Chestnut Historic District. It provides an oasis of beautifully landscaped grounds, gardens, and waterfalls just a half mile stroll from the vibrant activities of downtown Asheville, NC. It was once the home to actor Charlton Heston and his wife, Lydia, who would walk downtown to their work at The Asheville Community Theatre, which is still putting on great plays throughout the year. This grand home is the perfect place for a romantic honeymoon, anniversary, or special getaway weekend. Delight in the mountain sunsets from our wraparound Victorian porch, walk the beautiful gardens, or enjoy the nearby excitement of the arts, culture, food, and music of downtown Asheville. You can also connect with the natural beauty of the surrounding mountain areas with hiking, biking, whitewater rafting, horseback riding, and a variety of outdoor activities. Our delicious two-course gourmet breakfasts feature fresh, seasonal, and organic ingredients. Our commitment to support local growers enables us to respond to your dietary requirements - vegetarian, vegan, gluten free or other dietary requests with advance notification.

Rates: $175 - $250

GayLesbianDirectory Discount Offered: 10%

Owners: Gay Friendly

Your Host(s): Kelly Thorton

Clientele: Everyone welcome

Amenities: Full Breakfast, Tub / Spa, Private Bath, No Smoking in Any Rooms,

Internet, Air Conditioning, Fireplace, Cable/Satellite TV, Robes, Hair Dryer, Off Street

Parking

Website

Email