

The Halda Group, Bryan Halda Realtor

1000 5th Street, Suite 200
Miami Beach, South Beach, Florida 33139
United States

Phone: 305-788-8470

Bryan Halda serves as Senior Managing Partner at The Halda Group Real Estate where he has established himself as a multi-million dollar producer. With over 23 years of experience in the real estate industry, Bryan has earned the respect and recognition of clients and peers who appreciate his enthusiasm, professionalism, and sincere devotion to helping people translate their dreams into reality. Born in Ohio and schooled in Florida, he later moved to Miami where he has lived for the last twenty seven years. This has given him a vast knowledge of the area and understanding of what makes each property and neighborhood unique and strives to find the best deals and opportunities for his clients. As an owner of businesses and real estate in Florida and property Developer in the Bahamas, Bryan has the drive and resources to market homes successfully and to locate properties that best suit the lifestyle and budgets of each of his clients. He is passionate about offering efficient and honest services to both home buyers and sellers to help them realize their goals and bring their visions to life. Specializing in waterfront estates, condominiums, and single-family homes, he is familiar with the unique needs of high-profile clients and celebrities looking for waterfront and luxury listings for rent or purchase after having met and served them in the past. Bryan's progressive and successful career in real estate has earned him many awards and recognition by some of the notable bodies in the industry. He received the Gold Award four years in a row for outstanding performance. Bryan has also been recognized by SunPost Newspaper as one of Florida's top Realtors, and as Best Top Producer between 2007 and 2013. He was also featured in Florida Realtor, The Advocate, and Newsweek Magazines for his exceptional client representation. He was recently named to the Top Producer's Speaking Panel by the Realtor Association of Greater Miami and the Beaches (RAMB). Bryan is also a Certified Luxury Home Marketing Specialist by RAMB and a Certified Residential Specialist (CRS), which are the highest designations in the real estate industry. As part of his real estate work Bryan enjoys meeting people from around the world and establishing close associations with them. He strives to demonstrate the highest level of integrity and commitment, while bringing some fun into every real estate transaction. His hard work, charisma, and true passion for his clients make him stand out as he ensures every detail is completed as smoothly and seamlessly as possible. As a result of his caring and personal attention to each individual transaction, Bryan's clientele consists primarily of repeat and referral business. Bryan's favorite pastimes include ATV riding, gardening and traveling to his cabin in the North Georgia mountains to experience the colder weather and natural wildlife. He also loves animals like alpacas and dogs. Bryan is always available to help with any of your real estate needs. He takes pride in delivering on his promises as he strives to be your Realtor for life.

Specialization(s): South Beach, Miami Beach, condos, houses, vacation rentals

Website

Email

Tell a Friend

