Cynthia Henrie, MFT, BCETSI am a board certified specialist in traumatic stress. I am also the founder and director of the LA Therapy Network & the LA Trauma Therapy Specialists and have over 25 years of experience helping women, trauma survivors and LGBTQI and Queer Identified people. I am a self-identified lesbian and have a gender variant partner. Thus I can relate to many issues that my queer or gender variant clients may experience! I organized a group of very dedicated and experienced, licensed private practice therapists together so I could offer additional, specialized services. We are committed to providing THE BEST services! All of the therapists here have over 10 to 25 years experience in helping GLBT youth and adults with a wide range of issues. Gay and lesbian issues, bisexual and questioning or other identified sexual orientations Gender identity issues of all different identities Feminist therapy and women's issues Couples Therapy, Relationship Problems Codependency Issues Children, Teens and Family issues. I have specialists in all three areas! Depression and Anxiety issues, Panic Attacks, Mood Disorders Grief and Loss, Bereavement Trauma and post traumatic stress disorders Victims of violent crimes, rape, sexual assault of males and females, hate crimes...
