The Greenville Inn is a luxurious 1895 Victorian bed and breakfast inn — affordably accommodating singles to families of six — which offers easy elegance and relaxing respite amid the rugged beauty of the Maine wilderness. This majestic historic mansion overlooks the Town of Greenville, the East Cove of Moosehead Lake and the Big and Little Moose Mountain ranges. A leisurely one block stroll from the front door has guests at the shore of Moosehead Lake and the shopping area of Greenville, Maine. As a premier Moosehead Lake Inn, the Greenville Inn is renowned for its unparalleled fine dining and unsurpassed mountain vistas. The two dining rooms are renowned for atmosphere as well as gourmet fine dining. Both dining rooms have awe-inspiring views. Most evenings, guests are treated to a glorious sunset which can be viewed from every table in both dining rooms. A choice of accommodations is varied with rooms, suites and cottages; all individually decorated. The individually appointed guest rooms, suites & cottages are equipped with all the comforts and facilities for discerning leisure and business travelers, including cable TV, wireless internet access, private baths as well as exclusive toiletries. The Shaw Suite, Cottages, and Carriage House Suite are perfect accommodations for family and weekend getaways. All accommodations include a scrumptious breakfast buffet and just too many other amenities to list. The inn specializes in business meetings, board meetings, executive retreats, team building meetings and other special events where a refreshing and exhilarating experience is the goal.
