Asheville, North Carolina 28801
United States

Asheville, North Carolina, is a very popular vacation spot for gay and lesbian travelers. You'll find a very friendly atmosphere, especially downtown and at Biltmore Estate. There is a large gay and lesbian community that enjoys meeting visitors (since most of them were once visitors before they fell in love with the area and moved here). Downtown Asheville is home to breweries, pubs, 50+ restaurants, galleries and a fantastic gay dance club. To help you plan your trip, see our extensive Gay and Lesbian Guide to Asheville and the mountains. Our 700-page online vacation travel features 2,000+ photographs and plenty of tips and guides to art, shopping, pet friendly hotels, secluded cabins, gay-owned bed and breakfast inns, nightlife, wine bars, restaurants, and much more! Extensive information on Biltmore House, Blue Ridge Parkway, hiking and waterfalls. A visit to the River Arts District (with 180+ artists) is a must. We have 100+ travel videos on YouTube and daily updates on Facebook. Our guide is gay-owned, so we are especially delighted to help you plan a great getaway to Asheville and the North Carolina mountains.
