I've lived in Washington and sold real estate for twenty four years. As a consistent top producer I've broken records in Litchfield, Washington, Bantam Lake and Millbrook, NY. My own house has been on the cover of House Beautiful and Connecticut Magazine. It has also appeared in the World of Interiors, Vogue and Old House Interiors. My partner Gary Goodwin and I host The Tea for Two Hundred, an annual garden party to benefit the Northwestern Connecticut Aids Project and the Susan B. Anthony Foundation. Next year will be mark thirteen years and hopefully the net proceeds will surpass the half million mark. This year over 700 attended. I have two daughters, Katherine a candidate for a PHD in social work from Smith College and Evie, a Smith grad and an actress in LA. I also have a grandson, Calvin the great. I pledge to be at your service 24/7 and will always be informed, candid and forthright. We love it here and you will too!
