Being in the criminal justice system is stressful. Important questions are on your mind. How will this affect my freedom, family, and career? What happens next? How will it end? You may feel remorse, anger, embarrassment, and even panic. You may be sleepless. You may feel hopeless. For many, this experience will be the most challenging of your life. I can help!

I've been defending clients for over 25 years. I've always practiced on my own, working closely with each client. I'll personally evaluate your case, answer your questions, and educate you about the process and your options. Learn more by visiting CraigPenney.com and watching my YouTube videos at <https://www.youtube.com/user/TheCraigPenney>.

My practice is results-oriented. My focus is on achieving the goal you want. If you or someone you care about has been arrested and/or requires criminal law advice, contact me for a confidential consultation. Craig Penney, B.A., M.A., J.D.
