CLOSED Three Springs Ranch is a family business that owns and manages 3 exceptional vacation properties within or adjacent to Giant Sequoia National Monument, 3 hours from LA and 4.5 hours from the Bay area. Each Three Springs Ranch vacation rental property has been chosen for views, natural character, architectural interest, access to water, privacy and proximity to the Giant Sequoia Groves (within 12 miles). All are fitted with modern appliances, entertainment, Wifi, games, luxury linens, wood stoves, iPod dock stereos, AC and central heating, full kitchens wood floors and more. Some have pool tables, game rooms, swimming pool, high beamed ceilings and laundries. See our website for full descriptions and photos. They are located at the southern end of the Sequoia range in an area largely undiscovered by tourism. We have renovated each dwelling using as much local, recycled, natural and energy efficient materials and appliances as possible. One larger property has been fitted with a solar array to produce the majority of power needed. We harvest firewood for each property from downed trees on our ranch and all linens are line dried. We are committed to providing beautiful, private, convenient, and fun retreats for couples or groups to enjoy the Sierra and Sequoias while knowing that a commitment has been made to be earth conscious and supportive of local craftspeople and products. Three Springs Ranch supports local and state non-profits in the areas of conservation and land stewardship. We welcome our GLBT brothers and sisters to come enjoy the peace and quiet of this special area off the beaten path.
