Birds of a Feather is a special, magical place... your dream come true! Our community in Pecos, New Mexico was designed for gays and lesbians to have a place to call their own, but it is open to anyone wishing to live harmoniously with us. Birds of a Feather's gated community is located on 140 acres of forested land with outstanding natural beauty and magnificent views of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains in sunny northern New Mexico, "The Land of Enchantment". Live close to Santa Fe, a city known for its multi-cultural tradition, history of tolerance, stimulating cultural environment, world-class restaurants, shopping, and an art scene with few rivals... add an ideal climate. We offer our heartfelt promise to create a community environment that promotes safety and security and allows you the freedom to be you.
