CLOSED If you're looking for a more comfortable therapeutic experience in which you feel a sense of relief, as well as a sense of productivity, then perhaps we should work together. I offer a welcoming environment full of respect and support. My therapeutic approach includes art therapy along with traditional talk therapy and I place an emphasis on the therapeutic relationship. Together we can uncover feelings and relationship patterns within your life that may not be serving you well. I have extensive experience working with children, parents and families. My areas of specialty include gay and lesbian related issues, adolescents and trust issues within the individual and within relationships.

Specialization(s): gay & lesbian parenting, co-parenting, children, adolescents, families
Rates: $150
