Step back in time in this elegant 1840's Empire Victorian. The Alfred Morris Gifford House is tastefully decorated in period furnishings with attention to detail for the discriminating traveler. It is located in the heart of the Historic District, a short walk to shops/attractions/lake. The Inn offers five beautifully appointed rooms with en suite baths, Jacuzzi, fireplaces, A/C, TV/DVD, wireless internet access and a complimentary guest refrigerator. A bountiful gourmet breakfast is served and fresh baked goods are available in the afternoon/evening. The Inn can also accommodate families or several couples (sleeps 5) in our independent 2-bedroom suite with a full kitchen, dining area, and living room. This suite has TV/DVD, A/C, and remote internet access. It has a separate entrance, and not part of the Inn, so it does not include breakfast. Please call the Inn directly to secure this unit.
