Discover the romance. Bask in the gentle "four winds" breeze on our Rooftop Terrace with our famous Margaritas, once extolled in Playboy magazine as the finest in Puerto Vallarta. The Four Winds is one of the very few remaining traditional posadas, perfect for a real Mexican experience, and the traveler minding his budget.We are a small, romantic 14 room colonial inn centrally located in a residential neighborhood just three blocks up from the ocean. And we're only a short walk to shops, the beaches and the Malecon where all the action is. And we offer a small but deep and refreshing pool with flowers and beautiful ferns cascading over the east end of the pool with water jets to aerate the pool and create a pleasant jungle waterfall effect. After watching the sunset at El Nido, our rooftop bar, have dinner with us at Chez Elena, our onsite restaurant. Mexican and International cuisine are our specialties. Our Osso Bucco has become a perennial favorite with many returning guests. This charming small hotel and restaurant became a meeting place for such well known personages as Peter O'Toole, Elizabeth Taylor, Richard Burton, Anthony Quinn and Robert Shaw. Los Cuatro Vientos has continued to attract people from all walks of life & different parts of the world..... people with a taste for adventure & the unique. Renowned Mexiace artist

Rufino Tamayo called Los Cuatro Vientos "the prettiest hotel in all of Mexico". We think you'll agree.Relax, refresh, renew...and enjoy new friends. All waiting for you at one lovely location nestled into the hillside above the heart of Puerto Vallarta.
