Realtor, I am happy to help serve the GLBT Community in any way I can. St. Petersburg has a wonderful gay community, with so many events throughout the year, as well as many groups and organizations to become part of. I moved here from New York because of its beautiful beaches and parks, the wonderful weather and the welcoming GLBT community. I have volunteered my services to many gay organizations over the years and will continue to do my best to help where and when I can. We have the largest Gay Pride Parade in Florida on the last weekend of June. It is such a great event and is heavily supported by the city and its businesses and residents.
