Let Common Ground Real Estate's team of experienced and diverse Real Estate professionals find the your perfect Atlanta-area condo, single-family home or commercial property. Our principals, Justin "JZ" Ziegler and Barb Rowland, as well as several of our team members, have made Atlanta's vibrant LGBT community their personal and professional home, and if you're relocating, we can't wait to show you everything our city has to offer! Common Ground Real Estate owns and operates the Decatur territory of PalmerHouse Properties & Associates. Though our offices are located in beautiful Downtown Decatur, Ga., we represent the needs of buyers, sellers and investors throughout metro-Atlanta: Midtown, Virginia Highland, Buckhead, historic Old Fourth Ward, Marietta, Alpharetta and beyond. In addition to specializing in relocation, first-time home buyers, investment, leasing, and property management, Common Ground offers a commercial division, builder development services, foreclosure avoidance and more. We believe our balance of community involvement, superior client service and proven sales history creates your winning scenario when choosing an agent to represent you. We appreciate the opportunity to earn your business and we're excited to show you why our clients chose Common Ground for all of their Real Estate needs. Let JZ or Barb assist you with the complete home buying process, introducing you to our LGBT and LGBT-friendly business partners along the way. Lenders, attorneys and insurance reps. are crucial to our business, and we always try to keep it in the "family." Contact us today to learn why readers of Atlanta's LGBT publications have voted us among the best in Atlanta Real Estate and LGBT advocacy. We've made Atlanta our home, so let us help you find yours!
