Phone: 912-713-5546

[CLOSED] Los Robles is a premier “Hospitality Residence” in Savannah, Georgia. Los Robles is the historic Savannah home of a late nineteenth century rice baron with elegant and graceful public rooms on the first floor and comfortable sleeping rooms on the second floor. Shared baths and Wi-Fi are available throughout the house. Hosts Robert and Richard serve an elegant continental breakfast buffet daily (8:30 to 9:30 AM). Also, Los Robles features the Spa at Los Robles, a dedicated area of the first floor specializing in Massage Therapy and Body Scrubs. Los Robles is well situated in the historic Thomas Square District of downtown Savannah, about seven blocks south of Forsyth Park, and is close to all that beautiful and gracious Savannah has to offer. Your Los Robles hosts, Richard and Robin, moved to Savannah from NYC over eight years ago, are well connected to the city, its attractions, its people, restaurants, the LGBT communities and they are always available to assist you in making your Savannah visit a very special one.
