The Family that is Gay Together, Prays TogetherThe Catholic Apostolic Church in North America (CACINA) is a small body of Catholic parishes that welcomes all, regardless of race, national origin, marital status, sexual orientation, political beliefs, or economic status.Our priest, Father Denis, is an ordained priest who dresses in black with the Roman Collar. Apostolic Catholics do not follow the rules of the Vatican in Rome but our priest wears robes and religious shauls just as the Roman Catholic priests do.100% support for the LGBT community Providing primarily for the LGBT community, we offer traditional weddings for gay and lesbian couples, as well as renewal of vows and civil unions. We also offer counselling. In addition, our priest does hospital calls, funerals, house blessings, and baptisms. We hold an annual Holiday Toy Drive. Church Donations are gladly appreciated. To make a donation please contact Church Vice President Gregory A. Miller or Father Dennis through the contact us link above.Our Church office is located at 97-05 101st Ave., Ozone Park, New York. Sunday MassSunday mass is held at 11:00 am at The Community Methodist Church in Jackson Heights (see map below for location). We meet in the upper room.
