In 1992 I graduated from the University of British Columbia with a degree in International Relations. After graduation, I took a small break from my studies, which led me to work at various ski resorts in BC. During my tenure my focus was on the rental and management of furnished vacation homes and condo's. In 1997 I returned to Vancouver to work in the tourism industry, and then later ventured into the corporate housing sector where I successfully dealt with the rental and customer service aspects of the corporate housing market. Over the years I have developed relationships with many realtors and investors, and with much encouragement from both groups, decided to take the next step into real estate sales in 2003. Until 2013 I was the Associate Broker at a smaller local boutique agency, licensed in both Trading Services and Property Management. In November of 2013 I joined the team at Century 21 InTown Realty. It was important to me to join a local downtown office that can give me the opportunity to further my skills and give me access to a global network of agents and offices. As a CENTURY 21® Real Estate professional, I am dedicated to providing you with the highest quality service possible. My personal knowledge of the local Real Estate market is combined with the power of the CENTURY 21 brand - the most recognized name in Real Estate today. Let me assist you in finding your dream home, in a neighbourhood that is right for you, and in the price range you want. Or if you are interested in selling a property, I also have the expertise to help you get the fastest sale possible and at the best price. I look forward to the opportunity of working for you!
