This luxurious five-acre resort on the Sunshine Coast of British Columbia features 31 spacious two bedroom villas. Just a two hour trip from Vancouver, the resort is nestled in the friendly small town of Pender Harbour, renowned for its many artists and its' always popular September Jazz Festival. Each villa at Painted Boat Resort offers modern furnishings and a large patio or balcony with a water view, as well as a kitchen with granite countertops, stainless steel appliances and two bathrooms. The fitness facility, infinity pool and hot tub overlook the ocean and are the perfect spots to admire the view. Kayak rentals are available on-site, and there are a myriad of local hiking and biking trails. The scuba diving in the area is known internationally and a popular draw for visitors from around the world. The Restaurant at Painted Boat highlights the freshest seafood in their signature creative coastal cuisine. Our chef ensures that the local produce and seafood are served in new and delicious ways, while our Wine Director has carefully selected unique boutique wines to complement the creative menu. The restaurant has a warm interior and a bright patio which offers stunning views of the resort's marina. The fully-appointed luxury spa has seven treatment rooms, hydrotherapy room, aesthetics facility and Spa Garden to enjoy at your leisure. The spa garden is a unique experience, offering guests the chance to relax in various hot and cold pools, in a steam room and under a waterfall.
