

Howard Lopez Music Group

Toronto, Ontario
Canada

Phone: 416-410-5252

Eminently versatile, polished, and professional with a touch of whimsy and a lot of humour thrown in, Howard Lopez is the musician of choice for opening acts, consumer and industry trade shows, special events, and private parties. Howard not only brings a smile to listener's faces, his music soothes, relaxes, encourages heightened awareness, and memory, resulting in longer visits. According to studies, adults experience 30% to 40% increased retention of information presented, making Howard Lopez and his grand piano essential for consumer and trade shows where a high degree of visitor awareness is required. Step the ambiance up a notch, Howard leads a three piece jazz / swing / light rock trio performing sultry, sexy and popular music. Dance the night away to Sinatra, Louis Armstrong, Duke Ellington, Benny Goodman, Dizzy Gillespie, Billie Holiday, Elton John, Billy Joel, and the Beatles, to name a few popular favorites. Howard Lopez is a Toronto musician known for his 'tuxedo and tails' Grand Piano performances. Classically trained, he graduated from the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto with his A.R.C.T. in Piano Performance. After completing his Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) and Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) at the University of Toronto, Howard began developing his business of providing quality musical entertainment services to the business community.

Tell a Friend