Sean has been practicing real estate in Colorado Springs and its surrounding cities since October of 2014. Having started his career with a large, franchise brokerage, he understands the importance of furthering his education as it pertains to the ever changing requirements of the industry and more importantly the needs of his clients. In an effort to stay on top of his education, Sean has obtained the designations of ABR, Accredited Buyers' Representative and MRP, Military Relocation Professional and he continues to learn in the areas that will best serve his clients. In August of 2019, Sean joined a truly international brokerage that focuses solely on providing a luxury level of service to both sellers and buyers, regardless of price point.

As an active member of the Colorado Springs LGBTQ community, Sean enjoys meeting other members of the local community by joining clubs, attending local events as well as supporting local LGBTQ owned businesses. He has supported the Colorado Springs Pride Fest since 2016 as a member of the board as well as running the event logistics every year. He finds great worth in being able to be a small part of such a large event that allows the LGBTQ community in Colorado Springs to gather as one in support of future strengthening as a whole.

Sean's goal is to provide anyone who trusts him with the responsibility of being their real estate professional with the level of service he would expect for himself and more, to make sure that each and every person he works with can say that he will remain a life-long resource.
