When you want a home, whether you're a first-time buyer or someone looking for a place to retire, I'm an agent you can trust. Looking for a new home to build on your new relationship or combined families - don't feel vulnerable, seek someone who will make you feel comfortable and help you every step of the way. As a native of Central Virginia, growing up and graduating from Rustburg High School, and Radford University - I came to love Virginia and everything about it - Our History, our communities, and our people. I graduated and moved to numerous states throughout the US (Michigan, Arkansas, Colorado, California, and Texas) and I have recently come back home to Virginia. My previous career as the Chief of Staff for the City of Fayetteville Arkansas (name one of the top 5 places to live by U.S News & World Report) and work as the CEO of multiple staffing and recruiting companies has taught me everything begins and ends with relationships. Engaging and collaborative, my joy as a real estate professional comes from understanding your needs and dreams and making them a reality. I don't play games or put people in high pressure situations - the only focus remains on finding the right fit for you, your family, and your future. I want you to feel comfortable to ask any question, about the real estate process - and I will do my level best to make sure you are taken care of every step of the way. Most importantly, I will make the experience an exciting one and not intimidating. I remember the first couple of times I bought my home and how daunting it felt. So much to know, so much to be prepared for, the fear of what if it sells quickly, and I have no where to go, or what if it doesn't and I end up with two places. Will my neighbors be accepting, is it safe, can we build a life here together. I am prepared to tackle all of these challenges with you!! I will do everything in my power to make sure, "YOU LOVE where you LIVE"! I work to create meaningful and productive relationships by ensuring a high level of customer service and personal respect. I am focused on providing you fully tailored marketing strategies, experienced negotiation skills and attention to detail, all designed to help us maintain a very high customer retention and referral rate. To sum up my job, I help people find homes they fall in love with. Period. So don't just pick any REALTOR, make a friend for Life!
